

Seef Terraces wins top awards

MANAMA: Bahraini firms Dadabhai Development and Property Management Company (DDPM) and Pegasus Real Estate have won top regional honours at the Africa & Arabia Property Awards.

Seef Terraces, a development by Bahraini real estate pioneer Dadabhai Properties, has won two awards – the Best High-Rise Residential Development and Best Residential Development Individual Units.

In yet another honour for the project, its exclusive marketing and sales agent Pegasus bagged the five-star award for Best Property Consultancy Marketing at the same event.

DDPM director Ahmed Dadabhai and Pegasus managing director Aziz Mithaiwala received the awards from International Property Awards president Stuart Shield and head of global entries Michael Sagers during a gala ceremony at the JW Marriott Marquis in Dubai.

Pegasus will go on to compete with the other regional nominees

■ Mr Mithaiwala, left, and Mr Dadabhai

in the same category for world's best award at The International Property Awards Summit 2017 at the Marriott Hotel Grosvenor Square in Mayfair, London, on December 13.

"The award winners' logo is recognised as a symbol of excellence across the world," said Mr Mithaiwala.

"We are proud that Pegasus is the only agency nominated from Bahrain, and look forward to representing the real estate agency fraternity of Bahrain in London," he added.

Seef Terraces comprises 173 apartments of varying sizes, available on a freehold basis in a 29-storey tower.

GDN - 13/09/17